

2024 Queensland Government Planning Awards

Privacy and security statement

The Department of Housing, Local Government, Planning and Public Works (the department) is committed to the fair and lawful collection and handling of personal information in accordance with the Information Privacy Act 2009 (Qld) (IP Act).

The personal information of nominees provided via the nomination form is collected for the purpose of identifying nominations for, and determining the winners of, the Queensland Government Planning Awards, as described in the Queensland Government Planning Awards guidelines, and inviting selected nominees to attend the presentation of the Queensland Government Planning Awards during the Planning Institute of Australia (PIA) Queensland Awards for Planning Excellence in November 2024.

The personal information of nominees will be used by authorised personnel within the department for that purpose and will not be used for any unrelated purpose, or otherwise disclosed to any third party, without the consent of the nominee, or unless authorised or required by law.

Without the prior consent of any prize-winning nominee, or runner up, only the name, photograph and the university they attend may be publicly released on the department website, through social media and/or through a media statement or otherwise as described in the Queensland Government Planning Awards guidelines.

The personal information of nominees will be stored on the department's server, which is based in Australia.

Please note that using the online nomination form is voluntary. You may opt to use a word version of the nomination form. Personal information supplied in the word version entry form will not be transferred outside Australia.
